

The Niu Evolver Initiative – Donation Policy

1. Introduction

The Niu Evolver Initiative is committed to transparency, ethical fundraising, and responsible financial stewardship. This policy ensures that all donations are handled with integrity and that donors understand how their contributions are used.

2. Ethical Donation Limits

To maintain ethical and responsible fundraising practices, we implement the following guidelines:

- Minimum Donation: £1
- Maximum Individual Donation: £10,000 per year
- Maximum Corporate Donation: £50,000 per year
- Anonymous Donations: Accepted up to £1,000
- Restricted Donations: Donations with specific conditions will be reviewed before acceptance to ensure alignment with our mission.

Larger donations may be subject to additional review, and we reserve the right to decline contributions that conflict with our values or could create ethical concerns.

3. Use of Donations

All donations are used solely to support the initiative's programmes, outreach, and community impact. We do not engage in for-profit activities, and funds will never be used for personal gain or outside of The Niu Evolver Initiative's mission.

4. Refund Policy

We generally do not offer refunds on donations. However, if an error occurs in processing, we will review refund requests on a case-by-case basis.

5. Liability Disclaimer

- The Niu Evolver Initiative is not liable for financial losses incurred by donors.
- Donations do not establish a contractual relationship or entitle donors to decision-making authority over the initiative's operations.
- We are not responsible for third-party fundraising platforms; donors should review their terms before contributing.

6. Transparency & Compliance

- All financial reports will be made available upon request.

- Donations will be tracked and reported in accordance with legal and ethical fundraising guidelines.
- We comply with all UK laws regarding charitable donations, tax compliance, and financial reporting.

The Niu Evolver Initiative is not a registered charity, and donations are not tax-deductible.
